

The Glory of the Cross

I count all things to be loss in view of the surpassing value of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord, for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and count them but rubbish so that I may gain Christ. Philippians 3:8

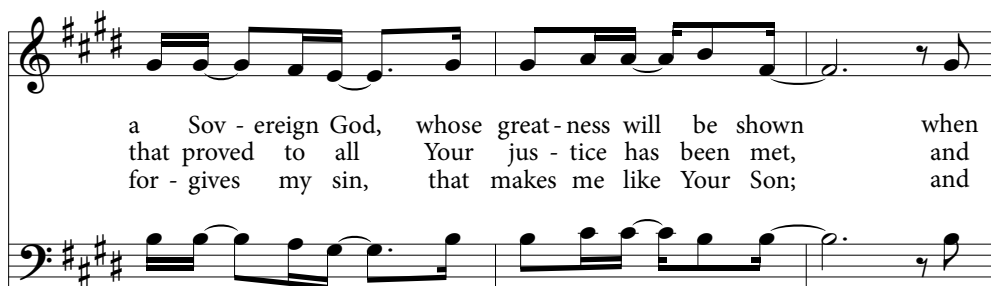

1. What wis - dom once de - vised the plan where
 2. What right - eous - ness was once re - vealed that
 3. What mer - cy now has been pro-claimed for all our sin and pride was placed up - on the per - fect Lamb sets the guilt - y free, that jus - ti - fies un - god - ly men, those who would be - lieve? A love in - com - pre - hen - si - ble who suf - fered, bled, and died? The wis - dom of and calls the filth - y clean? A right - eous - ness our minds could not con - ceive. A mer - cy that a Sov - ereign God, whose great - ness will be shown when that proved to all Your jus - tice has been met, and for - gives my sin, that makes me like Your Son; and those who cru - ci - fied Your Son re - joice a - round Your throne! ho - ly wrath is sat - is - fied through one a - ton - ing death.

 now I'm loved for - ev - er - more be - cause of what You've done.

And oh, the glo - ry of the cross, that

You would send Your Son for us. I glad - ly count my life as loss that I might come to know the glo - ry of, the glo - ry of the cross.
