

Relentless Love

3. Re - lent - less love pre - serves my life from un - be - lief—
4. Re - lent - less love trans - forms my soul and its de - lights—

opt. harmony

love un - de - served, un - known, yet deep and vast.
was un - re - turned, yet un - de - terred by pride.
sus - tains me through my sin, my doubt, my grief.
ex - ceeds the fleet - ing joys which once suf - ficed.

God set His love on me— on me, in spite of me!
Till by a grace un - sought, my reb - el soul was caught—
Since Christ has done it all, though fee - ble, I'll not fall,
Held by His love for me— a hold which sets me free!

Sal - va - tion's work is His from first to last.
re - deemed by love that would not be de - nied.
His wound - ed hands hold me, the sin - ners' chief.
I have my heart's de - sire, and that is Christ.
