

All That I Am, to You I Owe

PSALM 139

1. All that I am, to You I owe; Your wis - dom
2. Be - fore my soul to breath was brought, Your eye did
3. Your thoughts, O God, can - not be told, more pre - cious
4. Search me, O God, and know my heart; try me, and formed me, Lord, I know. I give my Mak - er see, and in Your thought my life in all its un - to me than gold! Their num - ber far be - test my in - most part; and lead me home, if humbl - est praise, whose won - drous works my soul a - maze.

per - fect plan was fixed be - fore my days be - gan.
-yond my view; when I a - wake, I am with You.
I should stray, back to Your ev - er - last - ing way.
