

Bow Down Your Ear, O Lord

PSALM 86

1. Bow down Your ear, O Lord, and hear, though poor and need - y,
2. O Lord, so read - y to for - give, since all who seek Your
3. A - mong the gods of all the earth, and all their works, of
4. Teach me Your way, Your truth my aim, u - nite my heart to

I draw near, pre - serve my life, O God; have mer - cy live, be pleased to hear my prayer: re - lit - tle worth, no god like You is known; all fear Your name and sing Your pow'r to save; I'll mer - cy, Lord, I cry to You, re - joice Your ser - vant's

- ceive my ear - nest heart's re - quest, when trou - bles, fears, and na - tions at Your feet shall fall to name You might - y praise You, Lord, for - ev - er - more, Your mer - cy rich, a - soul a - new; I look to You, O Lord. foes mo - lest, save me from eve - ry snare.

Lord of all, for You are God a - lone.
- bun - dant, sure, has spared me from the grave.

5. O God, the proud have brought me strife, a mob has tried to take my life;
they do not seek Your face.
Lord, slow to anger, You abound in love and deep compassion, crowned with mercy, truth, and grace.
6. O Lord, in mercy, turn and see, grant new reserves of grace to me,
and save Your faithful son.
Give me a sign that all is well; shame all my foes, that I may tell of all that You have done.