

For Your Delight

PSALM 21

Unison

1. Your gifts ex - ceed what - ev - er we could ask, and all we need:
2. For Your de - light, we praise Your ho - li - ness and sing Your might:

The first system of music features a treble and bass staff in a 4/4 time signature with a key signature of two flats. The melody is written in a unison style, with the bass line providing harmonic support. The lyrics are printed below the treble staff.

Lord, You have an - swered prayer with peace that con - quers strife, can wick - ed - ness sur - vive Your all - con - sum - ing flame?

The second system continues the melody and bass line. The lyrics are printed below the treble staff.

with great - er wealth than gold, with ev - er - last - ing life:
Will sin not be ex - posed to ev - er - last - ing shame?

The third system continues the melody and bass line. The lyrics are printed below the treble staff.

yes, what can move the saints who choose to trust Your end - less love?
When You draw near, the pow'rs that scorn Your reign will dis - ap - pear.

The fourth system concludes the piece with a final cadence. The lyrics are printed below the treble staff.
