

God Is Our Strength and Refuge

PSALM 46

1. God is our Strength and Ref - uge, a Help - er ev - er near.
2. A qui - et stream re - fresh - es the cit - y of our God;
3. Be - hold God's glo - rious pow - er: He makes all war - fare cease.
4. The vi - olent sea turned plac - id when Je - sus cried, "Be still!"

While rest - ing in His shel - ter, no e - vil will we fear—
His throne stands un - af - fect - ed while king - doms rise and fall.
Each weap - on He will shat - ter; the world will be at peace.
Fears gone, twelve men stood gasp - ing when waves o - beyed His will.

not if the moun - tains crum - ble in - to the an - gry sea,
One word from Ja - cob's Sav - ior will melt the rag - ing throng.
"Be still!" cries heav - en's Sov - ereign, "Be still, for I am God!
And soon the same voice speak - ing will calm earth's re - bel storm.

nor if the surg - ing o - cean ex - ceeds its bound - a - ry.
The Lord of hosts is with us; He is our for - tress strong.
All king - doms—all cre - a - tion—will bow be - neath My rod."
This Lord of hosts is with us both now and ev - er - more!

Words: Joe Tyrpak
Music: Samuel Wesley, 1864

© 2013 ChurchWorksMedia.com. Used by permission.

AURELIA

76 76 D