2. I will seize the com - ing time, right - ly judg - ing acts of crime.
3. You who boast, and vaunt your pride, wick - ed, and self - sat - is - fied,
4. Not from east or south or west is pro - mo - tion man - i - fest.

how Your name is ev - er near; so we praise You year by year.
Though the earth and peo - ples squirm, I will hold their pil - lars firm.
be not boast - ful, be not proud, nei - ther let your voice be loud.
God is Judge to test and try, bring - ing down, and rais - ing high.

5. From the Lord there is a cup,
mixed and foaming wine to sup;
all the wicked must comply,
drink it down, and drain it dry.

6. I will sing and ever tell
of the God of Israel.
Slaying wicked to the dust,
God will raise the pure and just.
