

I Thank the Lord With All My Heart

PSALM 111

1. I thank the Lord with all my heart, and sing with the up - right; *
2. In splen - dor and in maj - es - ty, His works for - ev - er stand,
3. His boun - ty free to those who fear; His prom - ise, their sup - ply.
4. His pow'r made known un - to His own, the peo - ple of His word;

how great the works of God Most High; they are His saints' de - light.
and pre - cious in our mem - o - ry the won - ders of His hand.
And He shall keep His cov - e - nant un - to them for all time.
His prom - ise, their in - her - i - tance: the na - tions of the earth.

5. The work of God is faithfulness,
the work of His own hand.
His precepts, true and ever sure,
forever they shall stand.

6. He sends redemption by His word, eternally ordained
to all the ones He calls His own,
for holy is His name.

7. The fear and rev'rence of the Lord,
the place of wisdom's birth;
all truth and understanding rest with those who keep His word.

8. Let every heart be lifted up, and every voice be raised unto the Lord, our God Most High, in everlasting praise!

* original:
sing with the up - right;