

I Will Awake the Dawn

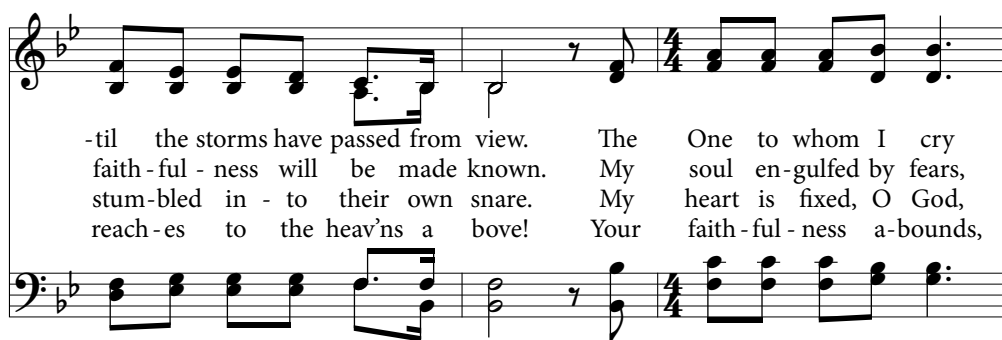

PSALM 57

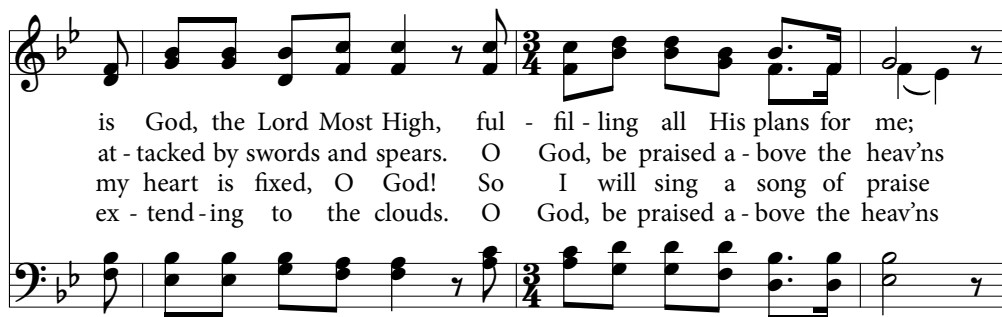

1. O God, be mer - ci - ful to me, for I have put my trust in
2. From heav - en He will send my help and put to shame the tramp - ling
3. They set a net be - fore my steps; my soul bowed down in deep de -
4. Now I will thank You, Lord Most High, a - mong the peo - ples sing Your

You. I hide be - neath Your out - stretched wings un - foe. My God will send His stead - fast love; His
- spair. They dug a pit be - fore my way but praise, for match - less is Your stead - fast love; it

- til the storms have passed from view. The One to whom I cry faith - ful - ness will be made known. My soul en - gulfed by fears, stum - bled in - to their own snare. My heart is fixed, O God, reach - es to the heav'n's a bove! Your faith - ful - ness a - bounds, is God, the Lord Most High, ful - fil - ling all His plans for me; at - tacked by swords and spears. O God, be praised a - bove the heav'n's my heart is fixed, O God! So I will sing a song of praise ex - tend - ing to the clouds. O God, be praised a - bove the heav'n's

3rd time to bridge

O faith - ful God, show mer - - cy!
 and let Your glo - ry fill the earth!
 and from my heart make mel - o - dy!
 and let Your glo - ry fill the earth!

Bridge

A - wake, O psal - t'ry, a - wake, O harp! A - wake, my glo - ry—

I will a-wake the dawn! A - wake, O psal-t'ry, a - wake, O

to verse 4

harp! A - wake, my glo - ry— I will a-wake the dawn!