all a - round us we en - dure re - proach and scorn.
 -sumed Your peo - ple and have scorched Your land with flame.

3. O remember not against us wicked works our fathers wrought;
 stretch Your hand to us in mercy—near to ruin we are brought.
 Help us, God of our salvation,
 for the glory of Your name;
 for Your glory come and save us;
 take away our sin and shame.

4. Let the scoffers' mouths be silent!
 Come, avenge Your servants slain!
 Loose the prisoner, save the dying,
 all Your enemies restrain.
 Then Your flock, Your chosen people, to Your name their thanks shall raise,
 and to every generation
 we will sing Your glorious praise.
