

Let All the Earth Their Voices Raise

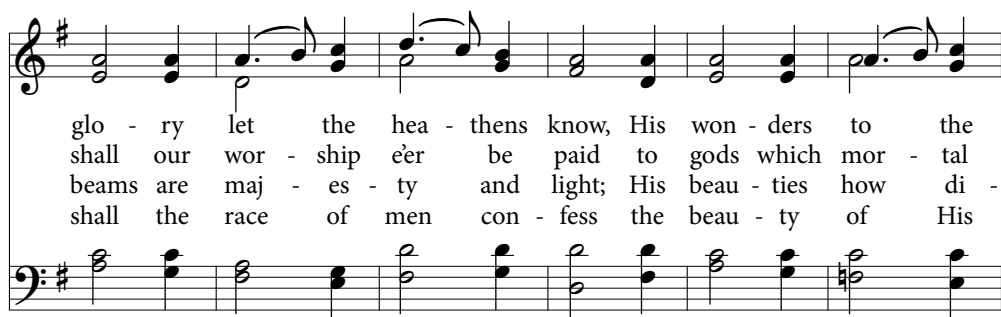

PSALM 96

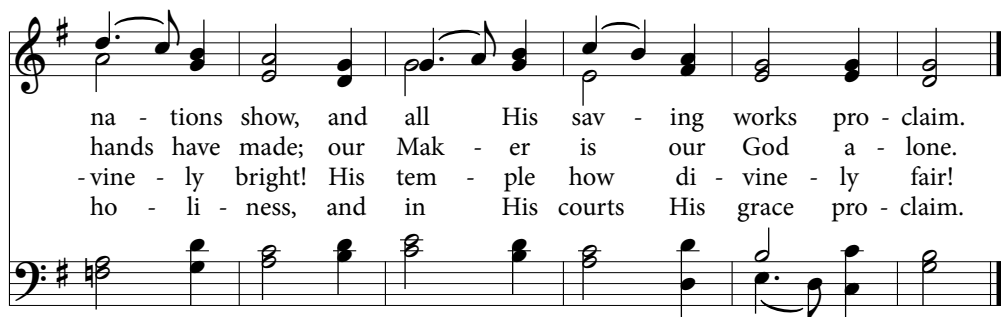

1. Let all the earth their voices raise, to sing the choicest
2. The heathens know Your glory, Lord, the wondrous nations
3. He framed the globe, He built the sky, He made the shining
4. Come the great day, the glorious hour, when earth shall feel His psalm of praise, to sing and bless Jehovah's name: His read Your word, but here Jehovah's name is known; nor worlds on high, and reigns complete in glory there; His saving power, and godless nations fear His name; then glory let the heathens know, His wonders to the shall our worship ever be paid to gods which mortal beams are majesty and light; His beauties how di-shall the race of men confess the beauty of His nations show, and all His saving works proclaim.

hands have made; our Maker is our God alone.
divinely bright! His temple how divinely fair!
holiness, and in His courts His grace proclaim.

Words: Isaac Watts, 1719, alt.

Music: Michael Praetorius, 1571-1621

Words this version © 2020 Grace Immanuel Bible Church

ACH HERR

88 88 88