

O God, How Good You Are

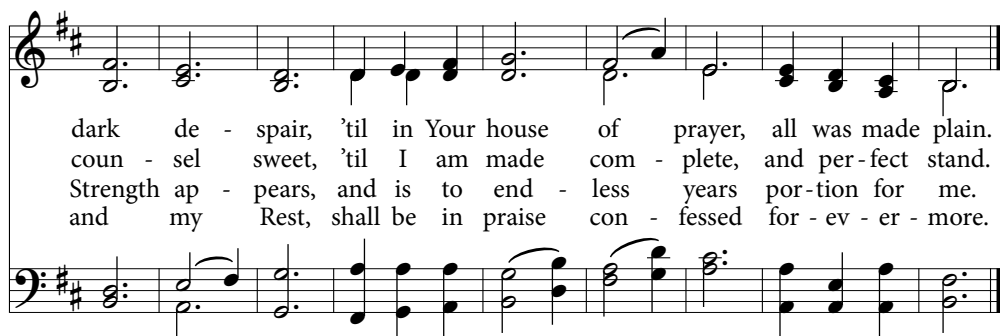

PSALM 73

1. O God, how good You are to all the pure in heart,
2. Dwell-ing, O Lord, with You, saints are pre-served and true,
3. In earth or heav'n a - bove, who else de-serves my love,
4. O it is good that I may to my God draw nigh, though life seems vain. Bur-dened with anx - ious care, I groaned in held by Your hand. And You will guide my feet by Your own faint though it be? My heart may fail with fears, but God my
