

O Lord, My Heart, It Is Not Proud

PSALM 131

1. O Lord, my heart, it is not proud, nor
2. But I have calmed and stilled my soul; a
3. O Is - rael, set your hope in God, and have my eyes been lift - ed high; great mat - ters are not child, weaned in his moth - er's arms. And like that child I place your trust firm in the Lord. All you, His peo - ple, my con - cern, nor things too won - der - ful for me.

am con - tent, and deep with - in, my soul is warm.
hope in Him, from this time forth and ev - er more.

Words: David P. Regier

Music: Traditional English melody; arr. Ralph Vaughan Williams, 1906

Words © 2017 by David P. Regier. Used by permission.

HERONGATE

LM