

O Mighty Rulers, Can You Claim

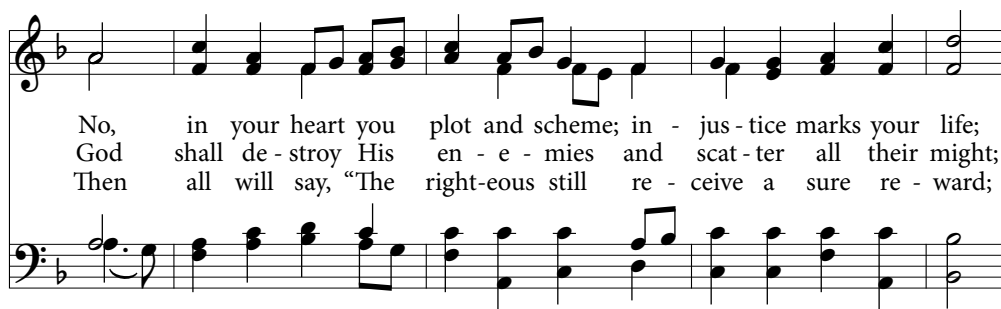

PSALM 58

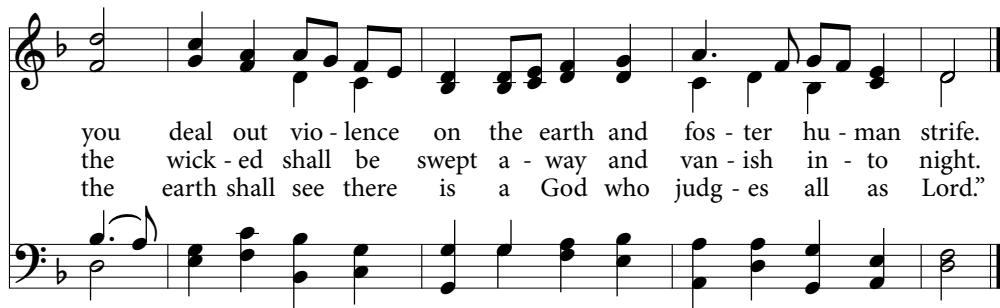

1. O might - y rul - ers, can you claim that you speak right-eous - ness?
2. The wick - ed from their birth tell lies, they sin, they go a - stray;
3. The right-eous vic - tims will re - joice when venge - ance is com - plete;

Do you de - fend the poor and weak in truth and up - right - ness?
they have the ven - om of a snake, they do not heed God's way.
their tri - umph is God's sov - reign pow'r, which saves them from de - feat.

No, in your heart you plot and scheme; in - jus - tice marks your life;
God shall de - stroy His en - e - mies and scat - ter all their might;
Then all will say, "The right-eous still re - ceive a sure re - ward;

you deal out vio - lence on the earth and fos - ter hu - man strife.
the wick - ed shall be swept a - way and van - ish in - to night.
the earth shall see there is a God who judg - es all as Lord."

Words: Bert Polman, alt.

Music: R. Boyd, Kentucky Harmony, 1816

Words © 1987 CRC Publications. Used by permission.

SALVATION

CMD