1. Oh, how bless - ed are the blame-less, walk - ing in the Lord's own law;
2. Oh, for paths made firm, un - fail - ing, keep - ing all Your stat - utes, Lord;

those who keep His tes - ti - mon - ies seek with hearts of won-d'ring awe.
free from shame and free from sor - row, when I look up - on Your word.

Flee - ing fast from all trans-gres - sion, firm they walk in all His ways.
Pure in heart to learn Your judg-ments, praise and thanks to You I make.

All Your pre - cepts are es - tab - lished; I will keep them all my days.
As I fol - low all Your meas - ures, nev - er, Lord, my soul for-sake!
