

Stranger and Pilgrim Here Below

PSALM 109 (21-31)

1. Stran - ger and pil - grim here be - low, I turn for
 2. Now, Lord, in love and kind - ness speak, sus - tain and
 3. Help, Lord! may all my foes per - ceive, I have a
 4. Now make my soul with joy a - rise, Thy shel - t'ring

ref - uge, Lord, to Thee, a - ware of eve - ry cheer my sink - ing soul; low as I am, and heav - 'nly strength and stay; with Thee to bless me
 wings a - round me cast; cause all that now af - want and woe, re - lieve my trials, and res - cue me.

 poor, and weak, one word of Thine can make me whole.
 and re - lieve, I can en - dure the hard - est way.
 - flicts or tries, to work my good, O Lord, at last.