3. Like might - y trees by flow - ing streams, their
4. The wick - ed sing a dif - ferent song, like path the sin - ful walk, whose lives turn from all laws are their de - light. They med - i - tate up - liv - ing bears good fruit. There is no dry - ness dried - up leaves they blow from place to place with wick - ed - ness, whose mouths a - void loose talk.

- on this word in thanks both day and night.
in their lives, no weak - ness at their root.
no true joy; in emp - ti - ness they go.
