

With Hearts in Love Abounding

PSALM 45

1. With hearts in love a - bound - ing, we now pre - pare to sing
2. In maj - es - ty tran - scend - ent, put on Your con-q'ring sword;
3. So reign, O God, in heav - en, e - ter - nal - ly the same,
4. Let eve - ry tribe and na - tion come glad - ly in the throng

a loft - y theme, re - sound - ing Your praise, al - might - y King;
in right - eous - ness re - splend - ent, ride on, in - car - nate Word.
and end - less praise be giv - en to Your al - might - y name.
to share her great sal - va - tion, and join her grate - ful song:

whose love, rich gifts be - stow - ing, has blessed the hu - man race,
Ride on, O King Mes - si - ah! to glo - ry and re - nown;
Clothed in Your daz - zling bright - ness, Your church on earth be - hold then shall no note of sad - ness a - wake the trem - bling string;

whose lips are o - ver - flow - ing with words of truth and grace.
pierced by Your shafts of fi - re, each foe be o - ver - thrown.
in robes of pur - est white - ness, in gar - ments worked in gold.
one song of joy and glad - ness the ran - somed world shall sing.

Words: Harriet Auber, 1829

Music: George James Webb, 1837

Words © In this version Praise Trust www.praise.org.uk. Used by permission.

WEBB

76 76 D