

You Have Been Our Dwelling, Lord

PSALM 90

Unison

1. You have been our dwell - ing, Lord, from age to age,
2. Eve - ry morn - ing springs forth bright, a shin - ing day.
3. All our years, they van - ish as a fad - ing sigh;
4. How long shall we lan - guish? Come for us, our King!

God of all cre - a - tion, Au - thor of each page.
Eve - ning comes; as grass, the light, it fades a - way.
la - bor in our sor - row, then a - way we fly.
Shed on us Your mer - cies, that our hearts may sing.

We, from dust cre - at - ed, fly, like dust, a - way,
Brought low by Your an - ger, by Your wrath dis - mayed;
Who can know Your pow - er? Who shall fear Your name?
Change our curse to bless - ing; la - bors of our hands, but a thou - sand ag - es are to You a day.

all our sins re - cord - ed, in Your light dis - played.
Teach us to live right - ly, giv - ing You ac - claim.
let them be es - tab - lished; cause our works to stand.

God from ev - er - last - ing; end - less is Your reign.
