

You Have Dealt Well With Your Servant

PSALM 119 TETH

1. You have dealt well with Your ser - vant by Your prom - is - es, O Lord.
2. How the proud have lied a - bout me, cold, un - feel - ing in their heart.

Teach me wis - dom, truth, and knowl - edge, for I trust Your ho - ly word.
I de - light in Your com - mand - ments; I shall ne'er from them de - part.

Be - fore I be - came af - flict - ed, Lord, my heart had gone as - tray;
It was good to be af - flict - ed, so Your laws I could be - hold;

now I'm trust - ing in Your good - ness, and I'll fol - low all Your ways.
for Your ways are bet - ter to me than a store of fin - est gold.

Yes, I'm trust - ing in Your good - ness, and I'll fol - low all Your ways.
Yes, Your ways are bet - ter to me than a store of fin - est gold.
