

“Living a Kingdom-Minded Life”

Mark 12:30-31; Matthew 6:33

1. We are interested in what matters most. We have our obligations to our jobs, to our families, to our congregation, but most of all, always to the Lord.
2. Jesus in being asked what commandment was greatest pointed to Deuteronomy 6:5. He also quotes from Leviticus 19:18 in showing the need for loving neighbors as self. In short, Jesus wants us to be “Christ-centered.”
3. When we couple these verses with the responsibility of Matthew 6:33, we come to the understanding that Jesus wants us to be a “Christ-centered, kingdom-loving” individual.
