

“Commandment #6—You Shall Not Kill”

Exodus 20:13

---

1. Beginning in Exodus 20:13, this commandment to ancient Israel and the next two only have two Hebrew words to describe the relationship with their neighbor.
2. God made all of life, and with mankind, He made him a living “soul.” God endowed man with something that will go on eternally. God made man in His own image. It is no wonder then that with regard to life, God said to His people that what will distinguish them from other nations is that there will be no tolerance for murder.
3. There are, based on this fundamental commandment and teaching, two primary views that Christians have adopted about “killing”:
  - A. _____
  - B. _____

Applications to be made in understanding commandment #6:

I. _____ the _____ of _____

II. _____, _____, and be _____ toward _____ people

III. Don't be _____ to _____ the _____

IV. _____ the _____
