Resales and unofficial third party sales are outside of bObsweep's warranty. No third-party sellers (such as independent listings on Amazon, eBay, or Craigslist), are endorsed by bObsweep and the company cannot attest to the authenticity of their listings or protect you from receiving products that are counterfeit, used, defective, or otherwise inconsistent with their strict quality assurance guidelines. As a result, they cannot provide the same support on products sold under bObsweep's name through these unauthorized sellers.
