

---

A C MECHANIC RESUME

---

Objective:

Seeking a position as an A C Mechanic in a highly established firm that will further boost my career.

---

Qualifications:

- Strong air-condition maintenance and repair experience
  - Sound knowledge of air conditioning and cooling towers
  - Familiarity with chemical treatments used in the towers and electrical stats and their specifications
  - Skilled at adjusting, calibrating, repairing, and replacing electronic, electrical, mechanical, and pneumatic control systems and device
  - Wide knowledge of operation and installation of a variety of complete HVAC systems
  - Ability to diagnose the problem in a machinery and repair the equipment in pressure situations
  - Good understanding of blueprints, control drawings and other electrical schematics
-

Professional Experience:

A C Mechanic, August 2005 – Present
L-3 Communications, Birmingham, AL

- Operated and maintained air conditioning equipment in an industrial plant.
- Conducted inspections on air conditioning, ventilating; components of the AC machinery.
- Diagnosed the malfunctions in the machinery and made necessary repairs even electrical when needed.
- Maintained the Building Automated Control System (BACS) to check on the proper functioning of air handlers, heating systems, chilled water system.
- Repaired the Heating Ventilating and Air Conditioning (HVAC) equipment, chiller starters, control circuits, sensors and Digital controls.

A C Mechanic, May 2000 – July 2005
Northrop Grumman, Birmingham, AL

- Supervised the proper working of the HVAC system, used computer workstations, handheld network terminals and laptops to check the building automatic system.
  - Maintained the proper CFM flow, building pressurization, adequate outdoor air supply to facilitate good air inside.
  - Repaired dysfunctional equipment and performed scheduled checks on air conditioning, heating, ventilating and refrigeration units.
  - Maintained the records of temperatures, service schedules, call and replacements if any.
-

Education:

High School Diploma, Westview Junior-Senior High School, Topeka, IN

Build your Resume Now