
Accounting Lecturer Resume

Job Objective

Accounting Lecturer with excellent teaching and research abilities seeking employment in your organization.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Excellent experience in providing appropriate education to adult learners
 - Sound knowledge of various accounting principles
 - Profound knowledge of developing curriculum
 - Ability to design learning materials for class
 - Ability to develop professional relationship with team members
 - Ability to teach advanced level accounting courses
 - Proficient in communicating with people from different nationalities
-

Professional Experience:

Accounting Lecturer
Allan Hancock College, Santa Maria, CA
August 2012 – Present

Responsibilities:

- Developed appropriate lessons for undergraduate student courses.
- Coordinated with accounting instructions and developed appropriate curriculum
- Analysed course requirements and designed assessment methods.
- Supervised working of student projects at internships.
- Planned and developed various processes and methods to achieve all objectives.
- Designed efficient teaching strategies for associated learning projects.

Accounting Lecturer
Harvey Mudd College, Claremont, CA
May 2009 – July 2012

Responsibilities:

- Developed efficient curriculum for business administration and accounting methods.
 - Planned all lessons and ensured efficient delivery for the same.
 - Maintained a high morale for the entire learning processes.
 - Developed learning materials for classes in coordination with team members.
 - Maintained subject matter expertise for accounting principles.
 - Performed research and designed efficient course curriculum
-

Education:

Master's Degree in Accounting and Finance
Lake Land College, Mattoon, IL

Build your Resume Now