
Anticoagulation Pharmacist Resume

Job Objective

Anticoagulation Pharmacist seeking employment with pharmacy catering to a diverse patient population.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Remarkable pharmacy experience in a clinic based anticoagulation service
 - Wide knowledge of DMH and DPH regulations
 - Familiarity with guidelines and protocols for anticoagulation use
 - Ability to provide treatment and prevention of thromboembolic disease
 - Ability to minimize the complications of antithrombotic therapy
 - Ability to keep abreast of current drug therapies
-

Professional Experience:

Anticoagulation Pharmacist
Samaritan North Lincoln Hospital, Seattle, WA
August 2005 – Present

- Presented drug information to health professionals and members.
- Interacted with providers to influence optimal drug information to patients.
- Attended in-patient and provider educational programs
- Directed pharmacy technician staff in the execution of technical functions.

Anticoagulation Pharmacist
Medical Connections, Inc., Seattle, WA
May 2000 – July 2005

- Presented clinical pharmacy services to ambulatory patients.
 - Supervised pharmacists and pharmacy students.
 - Provided assistance and in-depth drug information to medical personnel.
 - Managed medication management activities related to anticoagulation therapy.
 - Conducted operational and clinical functions and projects as assigned.
 - Provided care for patients in the specific age range.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Pharmacy
Northwestern Health Sciences University, Bloomington, MN

Build your Resume Now