
Design Researcher Resume

Job Objective

To obtain a Design Researcher position with company seeking dedicated and hard working employee.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Admirable experience in conducting research and managing good working relations with clients
 - Operational knowledge of managing all phases of project
 - Ability to work with various quantitative techniques
 - Ability to develop various strategies
 - Ability to prepare various information designs
 - Ability to understand diverse target audiences
 - Ability to visualize data and customize presentations
 - Proven track record of designing usability and qualitative research
 - Passion for research, strategy, innovation, and design
 - Good skills to prepare reports
-

Professional Experience:

Design Researcher
CompuCom Application Services, Los Angeles, CA
November 2007 – Present

- Prepared various concepts for research development and performed different levels of usability development on same.
- Developed new methods of conducting research, collected data and ensured accuracy of same.
- Ensured completion of all research work according to schedule.
- Maintained knowledge on new and competitor products coming into market.
- Evaluated all measuring devices and associated equipment for research work.
- Monitored various research methods, designed new products and reviewed its usability.

Design Researcher
Hill-Rom, Los Angeles, CA
December 2003 – October 2007

- Coordinated with design teams and developed new product.
 - Performed consumer targeted research and studied various trends.
 - Participated in various competitive analyses and participated in various usability surveys.
 - Developed human resources team and initiated various development plans.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Industrial Design
Gainesville State College, Oakwood, GA

Build your Resume Now