

---

ECOLOGIST RESUME

---

Summary:

---

An individual involved in a wide range of tasks on ecological preservation and sanitation; has conducted extensive research and surveys to record and identify species and their habitats; has proven experience in data collection and management of biological information; has been involved in policy-making and management tasks; has strong background on different areas in ecological study covering marine, fauna and terrestrial organisms.

---

Professional Experience:

---

Ecologist October 2000 – Present
Tucker Design Associates, California

---

Responsibilities:

---

Analyzed and interpreted data, using specialized software systems.
Liaised with site managers and other ecologists associated with survey and data gathering.
Contributed ideas based on ecological findings for policy and legislation changes.
Conducted field surveys to collect information on various species behavior, mating seasons and habitat.
Held teaching sessions in schools and other government-related centers and non-government organizations premises.

Associate Ecologist August 1991 – September 1993
EWI, Inc. Constructors, Fayetteville, Arkansas

---

Responsibilities:

---

- Analyzed and interpreted data, using specialized software systems.
- Liaised with site managers and other ecologists associated with survey and data gathering.
- Contributed ideas based on ecological findings for policy and legislation changes.
- Conducted field surveys to collect information on various species behavior, mating seasons and habitat.
- Held teaching sessions in schools and other government-related centers and non-government organizations premises.

Associate Ecologist August 1991 – September 1993
EWI, Inc. Constructors, Fayetteville, Arkansas

---

Responsibilities:

---

- Analyzed and interpreted data, using specialized software systems.
- Liaised with site managers and other ecologists associated with survey and data gathering.
- Contributed ideas based on ecological findings for policy and legislation changes.
- Conducted field surveys to collect information on various species behavior, mating seasons and habitat.
- Held teaching sessions in schools and other government-related centers and non-government organizations premises.

Associate Ecologist August 1991 – September 1993
EWI, Inc. Constructors, Fayetteville, Arkansas

---

Education:

---

1993-1995 Master Degree in Ecological Science
Arizona State University, AZ
1989-1993 Bachelor's Degree in Ecology
Arizona State University, AZ

---

Skills:

---

- Knowledge in botany, zoology, microbiology, genetics and cellular biology
- Confidence in handling graphical and statistical data, keen on detail
- Organizational, research and data management skills
- Effective communication skills and effective analytical skills
- Good intellectual and interpersonal skills

Awards and Affiliations:

---

Haribon Foundation, Member
People for the Ethical Treatment of Animals (PETA), Member

Build your Resume Now