
Forensic Psychologist Resume

Job Objective

Looking to help people overcome psychological problems and regain positivity by obtaining the Forensic Psychologist job in your organization.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Strong experience in conducting forensic psychological evaluations
 - Profound knowledge of pretrial forensic testing methods
 - Good understanding of psychological assessment principles, terminology and techniques
 - Familiarity with personality dynamics and counseling theories
 - Ability to utilize objective and projective methods to obtain diagnosis
 - Ability to effectively operate neuropsychological screening instruments
 - Ability to treat criminals and dangerous individuals
 - Ability to provide testimony in courts of law
 - Ability to prepare concise reports detailing findings
 - Ability to assist in treatment planning and evaluation activities
-

Professional Experience:

Forensic Psychologist
Georgia DBHDD, Cambridge, MA
August 2007 – Present

- Conducted forensic psychological evaluations and prepared test reports.
- Provided testimony in court concerning the psychological state of individuals.
- Interviewed individuals to obtain medical, family and social history.
- Adhered to hospital policies and APA psychological standards.
- Developed treatment plan based on patient's mental disorders.
- Modified treatment plan according to patient's progress.
- Provided counseling to patients to improve personal and vocational adjustments.
- Handled complex psychiatric cases effectively.

Forensic Psychologist
MHM Services, Cambridge, MA
May 2004 – July 2007

- Provided consultation services to Attorneys about forensic evaluations.
 - Maintained detailed reports on findings of psychological assessments.
 - Informed forensic evaluation results to Judges directly.
 - Provided trainings to Interns regarding forensic services.
 - Interviewed patient to identify behavioral and emotional issues.
 - Provided appropriate diagnosis to treat patient's abnormal behavior.
 - Determined treatment intensity and duration based on patient's needs.
 - Conducted researches in the field of forensic psychology.
-

Education:

Master's Degree in Forensic Psychology
Southern Connecticut State University, New Haven, CT
Bachelor's Degree in Psychology
Thiel College, Greenville, PA

Build your Resume Now