

---

Fuel Distribution System Operator Resume

---

Job Objective

To obtain a Fuel Distribution System Operator position in a company that provides an open environment with many opportunities for continuous growth.

---

Summary of Qualifications:

- Hands-on experience working as a Fuel Distribution System Operator
  - Profound knowledge of distribution systems operations, consisting of pipeline receipts & issues
  - Sound knowledge of barge, tanker load & offloads, terminal pipe pumping system
  - Skilled in receiving, storing, transferring of fuels
  - Ability to calculate and maintain fuel levels to meet mission requirements
  - Excellent written and oral communication skills
  - Exceptional ability to read and interpret written information
  - Immense ability to work independently
-

Work Experience:

Fuel Distribution System Operator, May 2004 – Present
LB&B Associates Inc., Visalia, CA

- Operated machine-controlled equipment and modulated the flow of fuel in pipelines.
- Operated assorted and pumping systems to circulate fuel.
- Operated control panels to coordinate and regulate process variables and directed product flow rate according to process schedules.
- Received, stored, transferred and issued fuel through pipelines at main-line and terminal stations.
- Connected lines, grounded wires, loaded and off loaded arms and hoses to pipelines.

Fuel Distribution System Operator, March 2002– April 2004
CACI International Inc, Visalia, CA

- Received and stored petroleum products.
  - Directed the pumping of fuel oil into properly-assigned storage tanks.
  - Measured quantities on hand prior to delivery and again after completion of delivery to preclude error.
  - Made specific gravity test with a thermometer and determined exact quantities of products received.
  - Maintained constant check on quantities of fuel oil spillage at delivery areas.
-

Education:

High School Diploma, Virginia Union University, Virginia, VA

---

Build your Resume Now