
Infant Hearing Screener Resume

Job Objective

Seeking a position as Infant Hearing Screener in highly reputed and professional organization.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Substantial experience of conducting hearing tests and screenings of infants
 - Extensive knowledge of audiology theory and speech-language therapy
 - Commendable knowledge of direct patient care and therapeutic interventions
 - Proficient in operating auditory test equipments and Meditech system
 - Ability to interpret and follow medical center and departmental protocols
 - Ability to prepare and maintain patient-specific charts, properly
-

Professional Experience:

Infant Hearing Screener
Mednax, Wichita, KS
August 2012 – Present

Responsibilities:

- Scheduled and coordinated hearing screening sessions for all assigned clients.
 - Educated and explained parents about hearing screening procedures, as needed.
 - Screened infants and NICU babies and reported on their hearing condition.
 - Identified and referred all infants with hearing abnormalities to audiologist.
 - Completed all necessary patient paperwork and processed their medical insurance information.
 - Developed and maintained positive relationships with physicians and medical staff.
-

Infant Hearing Screener
Pediatrix Medical Group, Wichita, KS
May 2009 – July 2012

Responsibilities:

- Performed and coordinated hearing screenings and tests for babies.
 - Prepared, maintained, and presented screening records to appropriate medical personnel.
 - Made patient referrals and executed follow up assessments, as required.
 - Handled and answered screening-related queries from parents, effectively and promptly.
 - Monitored and maintained the stock level of all needed screening equipments and supplies.
 - Interpreted and complied with medical center work policies, procedures, and standards.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Speech Pathology
Belmont University, Nashville, TN

Build your Resume Now