

---

Integration Developer Resume

---

Job Objective

To obtain a position as an Integration Developer and utilize my knowledge, skills and experience.

---

Highlights of Qualifications:

---

- Exceptional experience in System integration engineering
  - In-depth knowledge of C++ on Solaris and Windows
  - Sound knowledge of server side Java and C# development
  - Good expertise in SQL Server Integration Services (SSIS) and developing and maintaining core components for electronic and voice brokerage systems
  - Effective decision making on integration architecture and design
  - Strong communication skills
-

Professional Experience:

---

Integration Developer

Panther, Inc., Clinton (Hunterdon), NJ

July 2006 – Present

- Developed and maintained integration architecture.
- Analyzed and interpreted business requirements and product vision into integration architecture.
- Performed system and risk analysis.
- Maintained integrity of high level design and integration architecture by participating in design reviews and code reviews.
- Provided technical details for integration solutions.

Integration Developer

Scott Corporation, Clinton (Hunterdon), NJ

May 2002 – June 2006

- Coordinated with Application Development teams for data and custom software needs.
  - Participated in the software development life cycle (SDLC).
  - Created project tasks from requirements and assigned to integration team members.
  - Approved integration releases.
  - Provided technical mentoring to integration team.
  - Developed best practices for system integration.
  - Applied new technologies and skills in daily work through conferences and online training.
-

Education:

---

Bachelor's Degree in Computer Science

Northwood University, Florida, FL

Build your Resume Now