
Missions Pastor Resume

Job Objective

Seeking a Missions Pastor position that offers an immediate challenge, career opportunity and advancement.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Excellent experience in managing ministry especially after seminars
 - Sound knowledge of various cultural missions
 - Profound knowledge of identifying new missions and supervising working
 - Ability to develop strategies to maintain faith in Christ
 - Ability to communicate with patrons and ministry
 - Solid understanding of people and culture within the city
-

Professional Experience:

Missions Pastor
LifePoint Church, Joseph, OR
August 2012 – Present

Responsibilities:

- Coordinated with other churches for various missions according to the venue.
- Provided global mission perspective to various church leaders.
- Managed communication with churches and mission executives.
- Developed and provided support to missionaries and peoples.
- Reviewed activities of mission ministry for various outreach programs.
- Administered assimilation of home assignment missionaries.

Missions Pastor
Trinity Fellowship Church, Joseph, OR
May 2009 – July 2012

Responsibilities:

- Developed and implemented program plans and ordered necessary materials.
 - Coordinated with ministry members and determined appropriate objectives.
 - Prepared schedule for special events and organized meetings and conferences.
 - Managed and distributed resources such as curriculum as per requirement.
 - Analysed participation of various members and analysed religious requirements.
 - Designed direct study courses for members within congregation.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Pastoral Ministry
Nations University, Brentwood, TN

Build your Resume Now