

---

Nurse Educator Resume

---

Job Objective

---

Looking for a rewarding position as a Nurse Educator in which my nursing skills will be used in such a way as to help broaden and expand my knowledge.

---

Work Experience:

---

Nurse Educator, August 2005 – Present
Duke University Health System, Billings, MT

- Planned designed and implemented curriculum and arrange them for nursing courses.
- Mentored and educated students at nursing schools.
- Evaluated nurse training programs and performed clinical research.
- Administered nursing care to ill, injured, convalescent and disabled patients and maintained medical records.
- Identified improvement areas in curriculum and accordingly updated them.

Nurse Educator, May 2000 – July 2005
St. David's Healthcare, Billings, MT

- Provided ongoing education to staff and patients.
  - Conducted and provided classroom instruction.
  - Mentored and provided orientation to new nurses, graduates, and interns.
  - Educated patients on health maintenance and disease prevention and provided case management.
  - Assessed patient health problems and needs in order to develop and implement nursing care plans.
-

Summary of Qualifications:

---

- Good experience in nursing
  - Outstanding knowledge of clinical data and pharmacology
  - Proficient in MS Office suite
  - Strong management, interpersonal and communications skills
  - Excellent organizational, creative, flexible and critical thinking skills
  - Ability to provide geographic coverage of targeted offices, clinics, support groups, meetings and events
  - Ability to develop and execute plans against objectives in an independent environment
-

Education:

---

B.S in Health Studies, Salve Regina University, Newport, RI

Build your Resume Now