Occupational Health Physician Resume

Job Objective

Pursuing the opportunity to enhance my career and use my skills to their fullest by securing an Occupational Health Physician position with reputable company.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Hands-on experience in determining effective relationship with medical staff members and patients
- Immense knowledge of health and safety regulations
- Exceptional knowledge of maintaining electronic medical records
- Ability to cater to emergency situations effectively
- Ability to maintain precautions and ensure health safety
- Familiarity of chemical, biological and medical hazards

Professional Experience:

Occupational Health Physician
Take Care Health Systems, Modesto, CA
August 2012 – Present

Responsibilities:

- Administered occupational health services and performed required examinations.
- Maintained record of occupational histories and provided appropriate medications.
- Prepared appropriate treatment plans in coordination with patients.
- Maintained record of medical treatment as per company policies and procedures.
- Evaluated medical procedures and recommended improvement to everyday services.
- Coordinated with management and ensured achievement of medical objectives.

Occupational Health Physician
Carilion Clinic, Modesto, CA
May 2009 – July 2012

Responsibilities:

- Implemented various medical projects and services and participated with medical members for same.
- Administered professional development activities and associated affiliations.
- Ensured compliance to occupational health and national disability guidelines.
- Maintained expert knowledge of occupational medicine for emergency situations.
- Monitored activities as per required HSE occupational health legislation.
- Coordinated with local providers and provided treatment for various injuries and illness.

Education:

MD in Occupational Therapy
Los Angeles School of Medicine, Los Angeles, CA

Build your Resume Now