
Oil Tank Cleaner Resume

Job Objective

To secure Oil Tank Cleaner position to help contribute to the growth of the organization.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Wide experience in cleaning and upkeep of oil storage tanks
 - Immense knowledge of work-related safety regulations and procedures
 - Extensive knowledge of API, TCEQ and EPA standards, and specifications
 - Familiarity with scraping and painting the interior surface of oil tank
 - Ability to follow work schedules and finish all work-assignments, within deadlines
 - Ability to execute strenuous activities like lifting and carrying heavy loads, with ease
-

Professional Experience:

Oil Tank Cleaner
Altec Industries, St Joseph, MI
August 2012 – Present

Responsibilities:

- Set up equipments and laid out hoses prior to cleaning oil tanks.
- Inspected oil storage tanks and cleaned the tank interiors, as directed.
- Operated and regulated company-assigned air monitoring equipment, properly.
- Prepared, maintained, and submitted timely report related to work scheduled and completed.
- Detected and reported tank-related safety hazards to immediate higher authority.
- Implemented and followed the company's safety, quality, and environmental policies.

Oil Tank Cleaner
Endeavor Energy Resources, St Joseph, MI
May 2009 – July 2012

Responsibilities:

- Scrubbed, cleaned, and maintained walls of oil storage tanks, properly.
 - Scraped off and discarded all scales and deposits from tank interiors.
 - Drained oil tanker and flushed out chemical residues, oil remnants, and sludge.
 - Used proper PPE and informed about potentially unsafe conditions, efficiently.
 - Operated and maintained all company-provided tank cleaning and servicing equipments.
 - Installed, repaired, and cleaned tanker valves, gaskets, and hoses, as requested.
-

Education:

Associate Degree in Environmental Science
Bladen Community College, Dublin, NC

Build your Resume Now