
Specimen Processor Resume

Job Objective

To utilize skills and abilities and obtain full-time employment as Specimen Processor.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Wide experience in large scale clinical lab establishment and processing
 - Profound knowledge of varied laboratory process comprising of phlebotomy, aliquoting and sterile technique.
 - Operational knowledge of managing and working with body and blood fluid and other related specimens
 - Familiarity about guidelines laid down for infection control
 - Solid understanding of general medical terminology and GCP guidelines
 - Proficient in dealing with co-worker, teammates and customers
 - Ability to work using hazardous chemical and biological agents
 - Ability to work in one position for long hours
-

Professional Experience:

Specimen Processor
Holland Hospital, Port Townsend, WA
August 2007 – Present

- Entered laboratory test requests in respective system on time and accurately.
- Provided assistance and solved customer problems and queries.
- Followed rules and regulation regarding laboratory Safety and Infection Control to assure safe work atmosphere.
- Participated actively in all activities at assigned section(s) as well as department.
- Ensured to work consistently for growth and development professionally.
- Performed processing of specimen to assure correct and apposite results of patient laboratory testing.
- Used computer for doing clerical activities to assure error free test ordering along with reporting of patient testing results.

Specimen Processor
South Shore Hospital, Port Townsend, WA
May 2004 – July 2007

- Drawn blood samples as required for laboratory testing after conducting point care testing.
 - Initiated and ensured to uphold positive and professional relations with co-workers.
 - Showcased mission commitment and value towards hospital.
 - Prepared and arranged specimens for laboratory testing for respective departments before beginning testing and analysis.
 - Received, checked and processed specimens for MVH testing from CompuNet Sandridge location.
 - Ensured to deliver correct specimen to internal testing zone.
 - Provided assistance for problem solving concerned with patient specimens and orders.
-

Education:

Associate Degree in Laboratory Science
South Arkasas Community College, El Dorado, AR

Build your Resume Now