

Here's a tour of majestic splendour and royal pageantry that will provide lasting magical memories to cherish

The majestic Windsor Castle

One of the castle's amazing State Rooms

Eton College boys in their coat tails

Windsor Castle and Hampton Court Palace

It's a wonderful touring experience to two of England's most impressive Royal palaces - Windsor Castle, home of the Queen, and Hampton Court Palace, home of King Henry VIII (of six wives' fame!!). Choose from a full day's tour to both of these iconic attractions or a half day tour to either one, all riding in a comfortable minivan. There are also other fascinating sites to see on the way, like famous Eton College and Runnymede, scene of the Magna Carta. And you will discover several intriguing Jewish connections and anecdotes too!

Windsor Castle

The official residence of Queen Elizabeth 2, Windsor Castle is the largest inhabited castle in the world, home to the Royal family for almost 1,000 years.

You will stroll through the glorious State Apartments which are still used for Royal receptions and state occasions.

Also on this exquisite tour are the stunning castle grounds and magnificent

St George's Chapel, burial place of kings and queens.

Eton College

After a lunch break perhaps by the River Thames (on the full day tour) walk across pretty Windsor Bridge to famous Eton College public boys' school that has educated 19 British Prime ministers and generations of aristocracy.

Runnymede

Leaving Windsor you will pass through Runnymede, a pleasant countryside location and the very spot where King John in 1215 sealed the famous Magna Carta, one of the most important documents in the history of democracy.

A visit to Runnymede and seeing the monument to the Magna Carta is a feature on the full day tour to Windsor Castle and Hampton Court Palace.

Hampton Court Palace

Home of Henry VIII and Anne Boleyn, this is one of England's most fascinating and impressive Royal palaces with its gorgeous State Rooms which house the majority of Queen Elizabeth's fabulous art collections. See the historic Tudor Apartments, experience the sights and smells of King Henry VIII's incredible kitchens and visit the beautiful Chapel Royal.

There is also the opportunity to explore the Palace's glorious gardens set in over 60 acres and featuring the famous Hampton Court Maze.

*Full or half day spectacular
royal tour*

Gardens at Hampton Court Palace

Cooking today in the Palace Tudor kitchen

Signing the Magna Carta at Runnymede