Day 1: Tuesday, April 17, 2018 Lima, Peru - Tour Begins Welcome to Peru, one of the treasures of South America. The enduring cultures and breathtaking beauty of the Andes await. Travel through this intriguing land visiting some of the world's most legendary sites, including Machu Picchu, the "Lost City of the Incas." Arrive late this evening in Lima, the "City of Kings."

Day 2: Wednesday, April 18, 2018 Lima Discover Lima's fascinating history during a tour through the historic city center, a UNESCO World Heritage site. Admire the artwork at San Francisco Monastery and enter the catacombs. View the Government Center, the elegant Cathedral at Plaza de Armas, an abundance of colonial architecture, and the fashionable suburbs of San Isidro and Miraflores for insight into the daily life of the Limeños. Then it's on to your exclusive visit to the Archbishop's Palace to witness the changing of the guard. This evening, get to know your fellow travellers during a welcome dinner with a tasting menu of artfully crafted Peruvian dishes and drinks; you will quickly discover why Peru has been named the world's top food travel destination four years in a row. (B, D)

Day 3: Thursday, April 19, 2018 Lima

- Cuzco - Sacred Valley of the Incas

Fly to Cuzco, in the heart of the Inca civilization. Journey through the Andes to the majestic Sacred Valley of the Incas, the agricultural center of their grand empire. Learn the centuries-old methods of spinning, dyeing and weaving traditional textiles during a visit to Awana Kancha, a living museum of the Peruvian Andes. After a short lesson on the local language, stop in Pisac village to browse the colorful handicraft market. Do as the locals do and enjoy a tasting of “chicha,” a unique regional drink made from maize, at a local pub. Then, head to the Pablo Seminario Ceramic Studio where you’ll get first-hand knowledge on this internationally renowned artist’s techniques and designs, inspired by ancient Peruvian cultures. Settle in this evening at your hotel nestled in the heart of the Sacred Valley. The rest of the evening is yours; perhaps you’ll take this opportunity to discover your hotel’s planetarium to gaze at the stars. (B)

Day 4: Friday, April 20, 2018 Sacred Valley of the Incas - Ollantaytambo Sacred Valley of the Incas Experience the lifestyle of the modern Andean people and delve into their culture when you travel to a nearby community and interact with the locals. You’ll get a true taste of their daily life when participating in small group workshops that teach you traditional methods of growing, harvesting and weaving. Celebrate their culture as you learn their dances and listen to their musical instruments. This afternoon, visit the spectacular Ollantaytambo archaeological site, the only Incan settlement that has been continually inhabited since its inception. A uniquely terraced complex topped with carved stone panels, these ruins reflect ancient Incan architecture and heritage. Then, make a stop at the Sacred Valley Brewing Company, a nonprofit brewery created to support a local orphanage. Taste these Andean-inspired beers and learn about their determination to support their community. Tonight, savor an authentic pachamanca dinner, a unique process where food is placed on hot stones and buried in the ground to cook. (B, D)

Day 5: Saturday, April 21, 2018 Sacred Valley of the Incas - Machu Picchu Climb aboard the Machu Picchu Vistadome train for breathtaking views through domed windows as you ride through the Andes to the “Lost City of the Incas.” Hidden by mountains and semi-tropical jungle, Machu Picchu is considered the most spectacular sight in South America. Spend the afternoon with your guide uncovering the mysteries of these majestic ruins. Tonight, stay at the base of Machu Picchu for a chance to further soak up its atmosphere. Enjoy an exclusive culinary demonstration before enjoying an award-winning tasting menu at your resort. (B, D)

Day 6: Sunday, April 22, 2018 Machu Picchu - Cuzco With leisure time this morning you may return to Machu Picchu on your own or explore the local markets. Return by Vistadome train to the Sacred Valley and continue to Cuzco, a city that blends Inca and Spanish colonial influences.

Before arriving, make a stop at the heralded salt mines of Maras. (B)

Day 7: Monday, April 23, 2018 Cuzco The morning is yours to relax and acclimate to the altitude. Perhaps you’ll choose the “Cuzco through the Senses” optional tour, where you’ll get hands-on experience with the owner and artist of a local pottery studio, followed by interactive tastings of world-renowned Peruvian coffee and chocolate. This afternoon, the choice is yours on how you will explore Cuzco, the former capital of the Incan Empire. Perhaps you’ll choose to join a local guide on a walking tour of the city from your hotel. Or, maybe you would prefer to board your coach for a comprehensive tour of the city’s main sites. Both tours will take you on a journey through this colonial city where you’ll experience the architectural legacy visible in the Cathedral, Santo Domingo, the Plaza de Armas, as well as a stop by the central market. Later, gather together and travel above the city to discover the important sacred Incan ruins of Sacsayhuaman Fortress. Enjoy a toast at sunset while overlooking the city before arriving at your authentic dinner and folklore show in the heart of Cuzco. (B, D)

Day 8: Tuesday, April 24, 2018 Cuzco - Quito, Ecuador This morning we fly to Quito, Ecuador, a UNESCO World Heritage site, and the country's stunning capital city. (B)

Day 9: Wednesday, April 25, 2018 Quito At the start of your city tour, enjoy a special visit to a Children International community center, supported by the Collette Foundation.* Meet some of the children benefiting from the nutritional support and healthy cooking education that is the focus of this group's mission. Learn about Quito's colonial center on a tour featuring the Presidential Palace and 17th-century Church of La Compañía. Savor lunch overlooking the Pululahua volcanic crater. On a one-of-a-kind experience, cross between hemispheres at the Equatorial Line Monument and Museum at the "Middle of the World." Spend the rest of the day at leisure discovering Quito's way of life. (B, L)

Day 10: Thursday, April 26, 2018 Quito - San Cristóbal Island, Galapagos - Embark Ship Fly to beautiful San Cristóbal Island, gateway to your Galapagos eco-adventure. After enjoying lunch aboard the m/v Galapagos Legend, arrive at the Port Baquerizo Moreno for an up-close look at the endangered tortoises that call the San Cristóbal Cerro Colorado Tortoise Reserve home. After exploring the island, stargaze from the deck of your ship and toast the wonders of the Galapagos with tropical cocktails. (B, L, D)

Day 11: Friday, April 27, 2018 Española Island (Gardner Bay and Suarez Point) Board your panga to visit Gardner Bay. Guarded by a colony of sea lions, the beach is home to Galapagos hawks and endemic finches. Swim and snorkel with the marine life, including manta rays and white-tipped sharks. Continue on and meander through the volcanic terrain of Suarez Point. During your nature walk, watch for hooded mocking birds, lava lizards, Sally Lightfoot crabs and blue-footed boobies. Venture to count Waved Albatross at the world's largest colony. Finally, visit the spectacular Soplador (blowhole) where water shoots 75 feet into the air. (B, L, D)

Day 12: Saturday, April 28, 2018 Floreana Island (Post Office Bay and Cormorant Point) Land at storied Post Office Bay, named for a barrel left in 1793 by Captain James Colnett as a "post office" for passing sailors. Continue the tradition and leave a letter for a loved one. Snorkel, if you choose, with green sea turtles or set out to search for Darwin's finches and yellow warblers. Sail to Cormorant Point and its olivine green sand beach. Try to spot stingrays and reef sharks in the emerald waters. Learn about the ecosystem's unusual plants. You may also observe graceful flamingos or spot a small colony of penguins. Seize another chance to snorkel and swim near playful sea lions! (B, L, D)

Day 13: Sunday, April 29, 2018 Santa Cruz Island (Charles Darwin Research Station & Highlands) Visit the famous Charles Darwin Research Station and see the giant tortoises from the station's breeding program. Trek through the Santa Cruz highlands to Cerro Chato and find more giant tortoises. Take a break to savor some organic Galapagos coffee before we embark on a walk inside dormant lava tubes to gain insight on how these pristine islands formed. Enjoy time to explore Port Ayora town. (B, L, D)

Day 14: Monday, April 30, 2018
Daphne Island - Disembark Ship - Baltra Island - Quito Garner panoramic views as you circumnavigate Daphne Island. Keep an eye out for marine iguanas, fur seals and crabs teetering along the rocky shore. Bid farewell to the Galapagos and fly back to the magnificent city of Quito. This evening, fall in love with the lights of colonial Quito during a nighttime panoramic tour en route to your farewell dinner. Arrive at one of the city's most historic restaurants to sample some of Ecuador's finest cuisine. (B, D)

Day 15: Tuesday, May 1, 2018 Quito - Tour Ends Transfer to the airport for your flight home. (B)

Experience It! with Local Naturalists

The Galapagos Islands offer a dramatic geological history and one of the world's most remarkable collections of plant and animal life. During your voyage, local naturalists provide insight into the wildlife and history during onboard lectures and guided nature walks. Learn about the Galapagos sea birds, including the blue-footed booby and the Galapagos penguin, and why they are considered some of the most unusual birds in the tropics. Explore the mysteries of the islands' amazing marine animals, including why whales dive so deep and how dolphins are able to communicate so effectively. Hear stories about Charles Darwin's acclaimed voyage and some of the settlers who once called the Galapagos home.

Please Note:

Smaller buses, which may not be lavatory equipped, may be used on this program. In this case, frequent stops are made during travel periods.

In general, hotels in Peru (outside of Lima) are small with one or two levels and do not have elevators which may require you to climb 10-15 steps to get to/from the room.

Each client is responsible for proper documentation and inoculations that may be required and/or recommended to participate on this tour. Please contact your local travel clinic or personal physician for specific details on the destinations you are traveling to and from.

The days and order of sightseeing may change to best utilize your time on tour. The itinerary is subject to change due to weather conditions or National Park directives. The captain may deviate from the published itinerary for any reason he deems advisable.

The normal daily schedule when on board the ship consists of a shore excursion immediately following breakfast, return aboard for lunch, and an afternoon shore excursion. Transfers to/from the boat are by small boats called "pangas," Landings are either "dry" or "wet" and you might have to wade ashore in shallow water. At all times you are accompanied by your naturalist guide. Shore excursions normally last 2 - 2.5 hours each. In some cases, the terrain can be a little strenuous. Passengers should consult their physician should they have any concerns regarding their physical condition.

Children must be 7 years or older. Children under 18 must be accompanied by an adult. Children must be younger than 12 for child reduction to apply. Child rate only applies if sharing cabin with 2 adults. Highest elevation: Cuzco, Peru at approximately 11,200 feet.

*Please note that Collette Foundation sites may not be available for visits due to school holidays, weekends or programming challenges.

To complete your tour, we include roundtrip airport-to-hotel transfers when purchasing our airfare with your tour. If you have arranged for your own air, we are pleased to provide you the option of purchasing these transfers. Please note that all transfers will leave at prescheduled times.

Travel with just 24 passengers on this tour where a smaller group setting means a more personal travel experience.

Onboard gratuities are not included in the price of your tour. Suggested tipping on board cruise: 15 USD per person, per day, for the on-board crew and 10 USD per person, per day, for the naturalist guides.

Single accommodations are limited and will be confirmed upon request and availability from the cruise line. Triple accommodations are not available.

At the Mercure Grand Hotel Alameda, Quito, our guests will be staying in the Deluxe room category.

The cabins available are Standard Plus Outside cabins, located on the Sea Deck. Upgrades may be available to Junior Suites (Earth Deck) or Balcony Suites (Moon Deck). Please see pricing for upgrade fees.

Cruise ships have a limited quantity of cabins available in each cabin category. We will make every effort to accommodate your cabin category preference at the time of booking. If the cabin category preferred is not available at the time of booking, the next closest category available will be offered and a surcharge may apply.

We pride ourselves on bringing travelers the very best experiences a destination offers. To truly experience the program and destination, you need to be able to participate in physical activities such as walking tours, walking over uneven terrain, climbing stairs and periods of standing. Some of the touring days may be longer, and some of the most unique sightseeing can mean accessing locations that restrict motorcoaches, especially in historic areas. In addition, temperatures on this tour can be very high, so bring adequate sun protection.

Complete passport information is required 60 days prior to departure to confirm flight arrangements to the Galapagos Islands.

Please be advised many airlines do not provide advance seat assignments until check-in at the airport. Advance seating will be subject to the airline's terms and conditions.

Please note that tour prices may change due to the unique nature of the government restrictions on the Galapagos Islands.

The internal flights on this program in Peru and Ecuador are not included in the land price and must be purchased with the air portion of your tour. Internal flights that are purchased will be ticketed and distributed on tour by your Tour Manager. For passengers wishing only to purchase inter air from us, own air must be arranged into Lima and out of Quito. Required inter flights include four segments: Lima-Cuzco, Cuzco-Quito, Quito-San Cristóbal Island, Baltra Island-Quito.

Economy air rate and schedule are applicable for groups of 10 or more traveling on the same flights and dates.

A deposit of $750 per person is due upon reservation. If you purchase our Travel Protection Plan, the deposit is only $500 per person plus the cost of the Insurance. A second deposit of $2,590 per person is due September 11, 2017. Reservations are made on a first come, first served basis. Reservations made after the deposit due date of September 11, 2017 are based upon availability. Final payment due by December 18, 2017. Deposits are refundable up until September 18, 2017.

8 Meals: 3 Breakfasts, 3 Lunches, 2 Dinners

Day 15: Quito - Peguche - Otavalo

This morning, travel north across the colorful valleys of Guayllabamba. Take in the panoramic views of the Andean moorlands on the way to Ecuador's "land of lakes." Make a stop at the Andean Instruments Museum in Peguche village. Continue on to meet local residents at lunch and enjoy indigenous music and dance. Then it's off to Otavalo, home of beautifully colored fabrics and a famous indigenous market. Try your hand at bargaining with the locals before heading to your hotel, the 300-year old historic Hacienda Pinsaqui, where the revolutionary Simon Bolivar once stayed. Learn how to make the Ecuadorian spiced drink canelazo and have the opportunity to sample this delicious beverage along with a tasty empanada. Tonight, savor a typical dinner in the charming hacienda restaurant. Today lunch and dinner will be included.

Day 16: Otavalo- Andes Mountain Train- Salinas- San Antonio de Ibarra- Otavalo

Today, travel to the region of Imbabura, known for towering volcanoes. Take an unforgettable train ride on the Andes Mountain Train past towering volcanoes and through spectacular Andes scenery that includes fertile valleys of fruit and sugar plantations. Arrive in Salinas and gather for lunch featuring regional specialties and Afro-Ecuadorian music and dance. Then, drive to San Antonio de Ibarra, a picturesque town famous for elaborate wood carvings and sculptures. Later, learn how to make helados de paila (fruit sorbet) prepared in great copper pans before sampling the treat for yourself. This evening, arrive back at your historic Andean hacienda. Or, you may choose a home-cooked dinner and homestay* in the Karanki indigenous community of La Magdalena on the slopes of Cubilche volcano. The Karanki welcome visitors into charming guest houses so travelers can learn about their culture. Today breakfast, lunch and dinner will be included.

Day 17: Otavalo - La Magdalena - Quito

Witness the extraordinary community tourism project at La Magdalena and discover how the Collette Foundation is helping to support its residents. Experience the shepherding and harvesting activities, taste the homemade cheeses and breads, and learn about their medicinal herbal teas. You will be amazed by the talented artisans who make beautiful tablecloths, breadbaskets and many other textiles. Next, venture to Condor Park, a rescue center for a variety of birds of prey, to learn about the protection of these birds. Marvel at their falconry techniques during a live demonstration. Then it's off to La Compañía Hacienda, where you'll visit greenhouses full of some of the most magnificent varieties of roses. Arrive in Quito and enjoy the city during your last night in Ecuador. Today breakfast and lunch will be included.

Day 18: Quito - Tour Ends

Transfer to the airport for your flight home. Today breakfast will be included.

Please Note:

Extensions are subject to availability and applicable charges at time of request.

Single accommodations are limited and are available on a first come, first served basis.

*The optional homestay at La Magdalena must be pre-booked. Space is limited. Rooms are simple and have private bathrooms. Dinner is included with the homestay. Otherwise you may overnight at the Hacienda (with dinner included). Please make your decision known at the time of booking.

A minimum of 4 passengers is required for this extension to operate.

During your extension, your local guide will provide included sightseeing services and will be available via a local office at other times.

Machu Picchu

Mystical Shaman Ceremony- 4/21/2018

$80 USD

Enjoy a mystical experience that introduces you to the sacred beliefs and rituals of the ancient Peruvians, allowing you further connect with the energy that attracts so many to Peru and Machu Picchu. Shamanism is the exploration and discovery of non-material worlds and states of mind—a way of connecting with the non-physical world which involves emotional and spiritual healing. Did you know that Ancient Peruvian beliefs hold that the Mother Earth – Pachamama – is sacred? Practices of giving offerings to Pachamama are still part of daily life for many Peruvians, traditions which were passed down from Incan beliefs. The coca plant, a sacred symbol of community, spirit and respect, also plays an important role in ceremonies that are still performed today as coca leaves are believed to read the future. This enlightening experience offers you a glimpse into Peruvian history and traditions. Please note a maximum of 15 passengers is allowed for this option. No transportation required as this option is done indoors at the hotel. Duration: Approximately 1 hour. Please note a minimum of 5 passengers is required. Transportation is not included.

Cuzco

Cuzco through the Senses- 4/23/2018

$100 USD

Come to know the colors and flavors that bring Peruvian culture to life on an adventure that is sure to dazzle your senses. Begin by discovering the pottery techniques inspired by Andean and Colonial period artwork at a local pottery studio. Roll up your sleeves and try your hand at molding or painting your own piece of art to take with you. Continue on to Café del Museo where you'll meet an expert who will share with you the intricacies of Peruvian coffee. Savor the unique aromas and flavors of the various blends and roasts popular in Peru's coffee culture. Finally, it's off to the Choco Museo to learn the secrets of Peru's world-famous chocolate. See how cacao is harvested and learn the process all the way to creating a chocolate bar. Your expert guide will share with you the history of the first hot chocolate, and why Peru, along with its neighbor Ecuador, is said to have the purest form of chocolate in the world. Then, it is time for what you've been waiting for – sample the rich, smooth chocolate for yourself. Duration: Approximately 5 hours. Please note a minimum of 5 passengers is required. Transportation is included.

Quito

History, Food and Culture of Quito -
5/1/2018

$150 USD

Spend the day in one of South America's best preserved Spanish colonial cities, and one of the most important UNESCO sites in the Americas. Your tour starts in the modern part of the city, where you'll visit the Central Bank Museum. Learn about the first inhabitants of what is now Ecuador and admire contemporary paintings and modern art. Then head to the Old Town to view the eclectic architecture of Spanish yesteryear. Admire the facades on the churches and private residences, the balconies and structures built over the last five centuries. Then it's time to gear up your taste buds and roll up your sleeves to help prepare a traditional Ecuadorian lunch. Learn how to make Ecuadorian ceviche and homemade bread, among other specialties. Once it's finished, enjoy a delicious meal together. Then make your way to the historic San Agustin Convent, where the Act of Independence was signed during the Revolution in the 17th century. Finish your tour by meeting artisans who craft Ecuadorian chocolate and coffee, and makers of the iconic Panamanian hat, which actually originates in Ecuador. Duration: Approximately 6 hours. Please note a minimum of 4 passengers is required. Transportation is included.
