

Binding Agreement with Myself

I, the undersigned, commit and agree to furnish all materials and labor necessary to thoroughly complete this Get Clients Now!™ Program.

I commit that I will be on each of the scheduled weekly calls to report my progress and support my fellow classmates.

I hereby commit to doing whatever it takes (while being honest and honorable) to achieve the greatness that I know is within me.

I will pay the price that is necessary to complete this work, because I know that not completing it will leave me feeling short-changed. I agree that I will be on each of the scheduled weekly calls!

I understand that attracting more clients is going to be achieved one step at a time, with each step bringing me closer to the business of my dreams.

I will only settle for creating the business of my dreams.

I have the power, I have the knowledge and I have what it takes.
