

---

---

---

Intermission

Food, Glorious Food

People sing and dance in musicals. They fall in and out of love in musicals. They also eat in musicals, as witnessed by many lyrics and plot lines involving meals and snacks. If you're not hungry, you will be at the end of this quiz.

1. Where do the frankfurters answer back?
2. What is Conrad Birdie ready to taste?
3. What do certain baseball widows cook that is deserving of praise, but ignored by their sports-obsessed spouses?
4. Name the veggies (besides radishes) grown in the gardens of two fathers.
5. What is in Fan Tan Fanny's refrigerator?
6. What does Josephus Gage eat for breakfast?
7. William Barfée is allergic to these.
8. What does Mabel Normand dish out at the deli in Flatbush?
9. The cook brings in two dishes at the dinner celebrating the engagement of Rosa Bud and Edwin. What are they?
10. Hildy brags of her ability to cook—and how! Which of her dishes allegedly induces drool?
11. What do they serve for lunch at St. Sebastian's?
12. Babe complains about the rising costs at the butcher's. What in particular is expensive?
13. How many seaweed salads are ordered by Roger, Collins, Angel, and their friends?
14. Who sells candy on MacConnachy Square?
15. Describe Bustopher Jones' meal at the Tomb.
16. Who resists the temptation of the following menu: beefsteak, pickled pig's feet, chili, turnip greens, and ice cream?
17. Algernon keeps eating them. This bothers Jack, since their romantic prospects were at that moment in dire straits. What are they?
18. What does Muñoz suggest as Stone's last meal?
19. You can buy roses and get knives ground on a London street. What else can you buy there?
20. It keeps bloodsucking fiends away—and, apparently, audiences as well.
21. In "Live and Let Live," Pistache admits to liking a certain French dish. What is it?
22. What do Ruth and Eileen eat for an entire week?
23. What do you need at a party besides that lively Grandpere to make it a success?
24. Who is fond of strawberry tarts?
25. Where can you find home-cooked navy beans?
26. Whose doors are made of gingerbread?
27. Where can you find a musical description of how to make a pot roast?

28. What does Sherlock Holmes need besides a cryptogram to attain a paradise on earth?
29. What seafood dish does Nettie describe as prepared in iron kettles?
30. Madame Armfeldt is disappointed these are no longer served.
31. Which Titanic passengers are partial to kidney pie?
32. What is Nellie Lovett's secret herbal ingredient?
33. Little Edie offers Big Edith a choice for dinner. What are the options?
34. What is Mr. Zero's last meal?
35. What gets thrown out the winder?
36. What food item did Jean Valjean steal?
37. What kind of sandwich do you get with coffee in a cardboard cup?
38. What does Georg bring to Amalia?
39. What company put crackers in a package?
40. In a small SoHo cafe on a Sunday, what do customers scream for?
41. What does Zorba like to chew?
42. What kinds of fruit can the sailors in the South Pacific pick right off the trees?
43. What did Irving Berlin say the hell with?
44. Maria alludes to a Viennese specialty as one of her favorite things.
45. Next to a "Bungalow in Quogue," what can one dig for?
46. Cole Porter mentions a lot of food in "You're the Top." What kind of dinner is sublime?
47. Charley's aunt is from a country noted for its nuts.
48. If there is honey in the honeycomb, what is in a squab?
49. What rare item does Herr Schultz bring Fraulein Schneider?
50. What flavor does the Piragua Guy not sell: mango, passion fruit, pineapple, strawberry, orange, lemon, raspberry, mamey. You not only need to know the lyrics for this one, but some Spanish, too!

Answers on page 242.

Cherry Pies Ought to Be You

Baked Goods

Can you bake a pie? Annie Oakley and Frank Butler lament that they can't, but plenty of folks in musicals are dab hands with baked goods. If you want a crusty loaf or a nice dessert, check out the offerings of these noted cooks or dining establishments. Match each baker or restaurant with his/her/their/its respective creations that are mentioned in lyrics or libretti.

- |                        |   |
|------------------------|---|
| 1. Nellie Lovett       | A. Rice Krispie treats                              |
| 2. Bobo's              | B. mincemeat pie                                    |
| 3. Miss Minerva        | C. seven-layer cake                                 |
| 4. Louis               | D. plum duff  |
| 5. Mrs. Juniper        | E. meat pies  |
| 6. Lizzie Curry        | F. birthday cake                                    |
| 7. Laurey Williams     | G. sweet potato pie                                 |
| 8. the Baker (unnamed) | H. gooseberry tarts                                 |
| 9. Nanette             | I. cheesecake and streusel                          |
| 10. Lovey Mars         | J. angel food cake                                  |
| 11. Susan              | K. cookies  |
| 12. Mindy's Restaurant | L. Toledo Surprise                                  |
| 13. Ado Annie Carnes   | M. pecan pie  |
| 14. Aimable            | N. bread  |
| 15. Jeff Moss          | O. bread, pies, sticky buns                         |
| 16. Robert's friends   | P. corn muffins                                     |
| 17. The Pastry Chefs   | Q. bread, cakes, pastries                           |
| 18. Polly Browne       | R. lemon cake, buttered biscuits, and apple crumble |
| 19. Toad               | S. blinis   |
| 20. Mary Turner        | T. sugar cake                                       |

~~~~~
 BROADWAY BONUS: Assuming you haven't said good-bye to your blueberry pie (and are you as normal as one?), try to remember what two flavors of pie Marryin' Sam mentions while talking to Daisy Mae. What Sondheim/Furth character admits that she thinks Sara Lee rates higher than Eleanor Roosevelt? What is Enoch Snow's favorite dessert?

~~~~~
 Answers on page 244.