

THE SUN ROSE ON SALVATION

Words by
BERT STRATTON (ASCAP)

Tune: ELLACOMBE
Wittenburg Gesangbuch, 1784
Arranged by
VICKI TUCKER COURTNEY (ASCAP)

CONGREGATION: Easter Text

Sweetly (♩ = ca. 92)

mp 6

The morn - ing — sun shone bright - ly on 8

Res - ur - rec - tion Day. When Mar - y — came to see her Lord, the stone — was rolled a - way. Her — eyes at last were o - pened when —

mp 14

16

Je - sus called her name. With love and — pure de - vo - tion, He

mf

20

said, — “Be not a - fraid.” In - 25

side the — dis - mal cham - ber, the air — was filled with 28 hope. The prom - ise — of for - ev - er was

Copyright © 2013 HAL LEONARD CORPORATION
International Copyright Secured. All Rights Reserved.

Reproduced by Permission of the Publisher kept— when Christ a - rose. A— gift for all the na - tions the—world would now em - brace. The long a - wait - ed

31 33

35

38

Sav - ior had saved— the earth with grace.

42 rit. f 44 Broader (♩ = ca. 88)

A glor - 'ous— dawn was break - ing to show— a won-drous sight. The Prince of— Peace was shin - ing with 50 52

46

ev - er - last - ing light. Through Him we have re -

53

demp - tion and— bless - ings with - out end. The sun rose— on sal -

57 Choir to end 7

va - tion; all hail— the Ris - en Lamb!