

In Spanish, the word “posada” means lodging or shelter. “Las Posadas” is a celebration to remember Mary and Joseph’s long and difficult journey to Bethlehem. Today the celebration includes a procession from house to house. At each stop there is music, food, and a piñata filled with candy and toys.

Las Posadas

MEXICAN CHRISTMAS CAROL
Arranged by JOHN HIGGINS
English lyrics by JOHN HIGGINS

1. En nom bre del Cie lo
2. Who will give ref uge to those in dis tress?

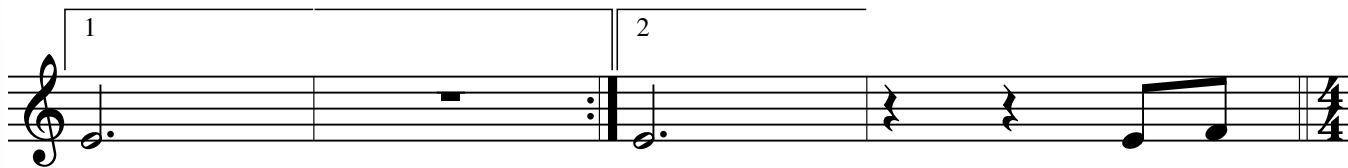

os pi do po sa da,
Two wea ry Pil grims need shel ter and rest.

pues no pue doan dar.
“This is no inn, you must be on your way!”

mi es po sa a ma “Please sir, I beg, we can no long er trav el this

da. day!” 1.En tren

San tos Pe re gri nos, Pe re gri nos! Re ci in, O Ho ly Pil grims, Ho ly Pil grims! Come right