The peacock represents more than just the national bird of India. Its iridescent plumage and grace has been, and continues to be, a source of inspiration for innumerable poets, designers, and artists. HARAKH's Peacock Collection has been crafted to reflect the dance and vibrancy of their gorgeous feathers.

The company's founder, Harakh Mehta, says the inspiration for the line came from childhood trips to Gujarat and Rajasthan, which often included sights of peacocks during the monsoons. The resplendent collection includes round, pear, and baguette-cut diamond rings and earrings in a peacock feather design. There is also a dangling pendant set with round, pear, and tapered baguette-cut claw set diamonds.
