HARTSVILLE PIKE MEMORIES week of 7/20:

LORETTA HALEY: A great memory is celebrating the 4th of July at Roy & JoAnn Bruce's house-the house on the hill where you could see fireworks in Gallatin, Portland, Wilson County, and Nashville. Roy would drive us with the tractor & wagon to the hill where we ate wonderful food, ice cream, and watermelon, and we fellowshiped with other Christians. We're so thankful for this memory.

JAMIE SISCO: Back when we had 4-5 pews of teens that sat up front...I felt like I was grown getting to sit away from my parents & with my friends.

BOB HALEY: When we moved to Gallatin & were searching for a church home, we attended Hartsville Pike for the first time. I introduced myself to Doyle. He remembered me from when he lived in Murray, KY. He always made me feel welcome.

ELISA McDOLLE: So many memories. April, 1990 only a few at Hartsville Pike knew we were adopting. Jake's first day at HP was April 22, 1990, and it was Family Day. That Wednesday evening our church family held a HUGE baby shower. Such a blessing, because we really had only basics and not many of those!
