For each challenge you finish, you earn a raffle ticket. You may repeat challenges.
Reading includes print, electronic, and audiobook formats, along with graphic novels.

- Read a book set in a different country or a different world altogether.
- Write a poem.
- Visit an international grocery store and try a new snack.
- Visit a museum in person or online.
- Sign up for Mango and complete one language activity.
- Write or tell someone a story about something you did this summer.
- Write, tell, or draw a story/comic about your favorite book but with YOU as a character.
- Redesign the cover of your favorite book, album, or video game.
- Borrow a cookbook and cook one of the recipes.
- Read a book published in 2024.
- Read a book in a genre you have never read before. Ask a librarian if you need suggestions.
- Read a nonfiction book or biography.
- Read a book about the past or the future.
- Read a book from the bottom shelf.
- Read a graphic novel.
- Read a book by an author whose first name starts with the same letter as your first name.
- Read a book by an author whose last name starts with the same letter as your last name.
- Read or listen to a book on Libby.
- Write an alternate ending to a book you read.
- Ask a friend, teacher, or librarian for a book recommendation.
- Make a playlist for a book you loved.
- Read a book about a fictional character or real person in the performing arts.