Computer Science is not only using the computer.

Computer Scientists can come from all walks of life.

It's great to have many interests in addition to Computer Science. Things I'm interested in:

Other things I learned

How did it go?

Ask a permission from your family member to share snaps of your creations with #helloruby!