Over the past year and a half Christine has raised most of the money needed for her new van thanks to donations made to Help Hope Live in her honor. Come show your support with this last big event to help her reach her goal.

Despite getting shot in the back and run over by an acquaintance 11 years ago at her home in Ft. Lauderdale, survivor, Christine Kent is making the best of her circumstances and keeping a positive outlook. "I survived by a miracle, by the grace of God" she says and has found new purpose in life to help others with disabilities after she was brutally attacked and left with a complete spinal cord injury paralyzed from the waist down. Although Christine suffers each day with chronic pain from her injuries, she still believes that "Everyday is a gift". Her attacker received a life sentence without parole which gave her some closure and peace of mind. Christine needs help because her van, her lifeline, is no longer safe or reliable.
