Installation Instructions

IMPORTANT: Read and understand all Disclaimer, Warranty & Installation Instructions before using this product.

1. Locate the two stock wiring connectors that are on the drivers side of the engine, directly above the valve cover. Disconnect both stock connectors by squeezing the ears on the backside of the connector and pulling the gray locking lever up.

2. Insert the Rapid Power LLY connectors and lock in place by closing the gray levers.

3. Locate the 2 small rectangular plugs on the wiring harness. Insert the gray plug into the gray lined port of the Rapid Power & the black plug into the black port of the Rapid Power. When you are finished you should have plugged in a total of four connections. Sometimes when the module is shipped some of the connectors are plugged together.

Your Rapid Power LLY will not work correctly if all four connections are not plugged in correctly.

4. The Rapid Power module can be mounted on top of the fuse box cover located on the drivers side fender. Attach the module using the velcro pads.

Notice: Be careful when inserting connector bodies. Do not force them. If connectors do not slide together smoothly inspect pins and retry.

5. Route the switch wire into the cab either through the door jam or through a hole in the firewall. Make certain the wire will not be damaged by the door closing or any sharp edges.
6. When the switch is closest to the groove it is in the stock position, the center is 40hp and opposite the groove is 70hp.
7. Check to make sure all connections are secure and wires are not exposed to possible damage from heat, sharp surfaces or moving parts.
8. Start the engine. It should start and run as normal. If it does not, check that no pins on any of the connections have been damaged & that they are securely connected. If it still does not start, contact Bully Dog Technologies.
