Peachtree City, February 20, 2019 –Quest Communities Development Organization hosted a HeroDay to pack 100 hygiene kits for veterans who are homeless or in-need of basic necessities. Their mission is to develop affordable housing and provide needs-based community services to enhance the quality of life for underserved individuals and families.

The event took place at their main office in Atlanta where their team worked diligently to prepare the hygiene kits for their residents and those who walk-in in search of shelter. Each HeroBox contained shampoo, body soap, toothpaste, toothbrushes, face towels, and much more. The Program Manager and HeroDay host, Sha’Nelle stated, “we never want to turn anyone away, but if we have to we at least want to give them something”, referring to the hygiene kits. Quest will hand out the kits on an as-need basis.

In addition to the hygiene kits, Quest plans to host a book drive in March that HeroBox will also be a part of to donate books and boxes to their efforts. HeroBox is honored and grateful to be a part of efforts such as these. Thank you Quest Community for all that you are doing here in Atlanta.

If you would like to donate or support Quest Community efforts please visit their website www.questcommunities.org.
